INTERSCHOLASTIC WEEK A SUCCESS

One Hundred and Fifty High School Athletes Entertained

Once more Hamilton has opened her doors to High School and Preparatory school men the State over. One hundred and fifty accepted the invitation. Whatever of labor or discomfort fell to the lot of any one was amply repaid by the pleasure of showing these men the beauties of Hamilton and a few phases of Hamilton life. The week must have created many a Hamilton Sub-Freshman.

Tho the responsibility of entertainment was shared by every man in College, it is to Renwick and Engs that the College is again indebted for the successful management of the Week. As chairman of the Interscholastic and Entertainment Committees, respectively, they had the task of planning the events and arranging the endless details which are incidental to an Interscholastic.

The "Week," like others of our College celebrations, was really but of three days duration. On Thursday noon holiday was declared and the programs appeared including entries, officials and blank scores for the various contests, besides many Campus pictures. These programs are most acceptable souvenirs of the days at Hamilton. Furthermore, the sum realized from the sale went far toward defraying the expenses of the week. The first event on the week's program was the Spring Handicap Meet of Thursday afternoon.

FRESHMEN REDEEM FALL SHOWING

In spite of the cold wind, the entry list was large and the events well contested. It was surely an underclassman day. 1913, reinforced by Wenigmann, revenged their Fall defeat by taking the Meet from the Sophomores in the last event by a margin of four and a half points. The Seniors scored 29 points, Juniors, 22 1-2; Sophomores, 43, and the Freshmen, 47 1-2.

The handicaps were much in evidence, but Wenigmann, the biggest point winner, took three points from scratch and another without using his handicap. His unexpected showing in the broad jump materially strengthens a hitherto weak department.

Abbott, in one of the most exciting races of the day, broke the mile record of 10:36. Eggleston, the winner, ran a fast race and, had he run from a scratch, would probably also have been credited with breaking the record.

Hahn, '13, was a surprise in the quarter. He took advantage of his handicap and finished ahead of the more experienced men. With training he should make good. Langdon, '13 winner of the mile, is another who shows promise of development. With him and Eggleston the long distances should be safe even after Abbott, who has been the mainstay in these races, leaves.

In the field events, Baldwin, from scratch, won the shot-put, and Sherwin, scratch, in both hammer throw and high jump, won both. Peters, '12, with a generous handicap, won the pole vault. Before the broad jump the Freshmen lead the Sophomores by one point, but Wenigmann's leap of twenty feet, three inches, cinched the victory for his class.

By the Intercollegiate system of scoring, the first four places counted five, three, two, and one points, respectively.

On Friday morning the guests began to arrive, and in spite of the fact that there was no holiday, the Campus was filled with visitors. By four o'clock, the hour of the Hobart-Hamilton Baseball game, most of those coming from a distance had arrived.

'VARSITY TROUNCES HOBART

The game was marked by loose fielding, plenty of hitting, and base-running galore. The 'Varsity won in the first inning by scoring eight runs, but just for good measure, added eight more before the game ended. After the first Hobart shifted its line up and played better baseball. The Hobart men showed the strain of their trip, and lame arms, due to the cold weather, accounts for several of the errors chalked up against them.

The fielding of the 'Varsity was not all that it might have been, but their batting showed improvement. Root made three hits, including a three bagger. Sidles, out of five times at bat, connected safely four times. Titus also gave some attention to his batting average, and gathered three hits out of four times at bat.

Allen started in the box for Hamilton, and worked well for four innings, neither allowing a hit or passing a man. In the fifth, however, he hit a batter, allowed a pass and three hits. Aided also by an error in the outfield, Hobart scored four times in this inning. The lid was on, however, in the sixth. Owing to the cold wind, Allen was relieved in the seventh by Drummond. Allen went to third and Judson to short. Manion replaced Watkins in centre field, and Hallock retired.

With the exception of the seventh inning, the 'Varsity made the most of every chance to score. In this inning, however, five hits netted only two runs. Titus opened the inning with a hit but was thrown out at second in an attempt to steal. Root then hit for three bases, and Judson, altho a single was his limit, immediately proceeded to steal second and third. Don Woods' error gave Knox his base and scored Judson. Allen singled, Woods flied out, and Sidle hit for a base. Manion fanned with bases full retiring the side. The score:

PROFESSOR CARRUTH, AS TREASURER OF THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, declines on his own initiative and without the consent of the Advisory Board to make public the list of men who have neither paid their Spring Term Installment of the Athletic Tax nor received a remission from the President of the Association. Thus we are not able in this issue of LIFE to make known the individual attitude of the College toward the new system quite as clearly as we should like to do.

A rather complete statement, however, is obtainable. Up to Monday morning, 142 men had paid the tax in full and five men had the tax remitted either in part or in full. 27 men had neither paid the tax nor received a remission. They are apportioned among the classes as follows: Seniors, 7; Juniors, 7; Sophomores, 10; Freshmen, 3.

There is really little excuse for the attitude taken by these 27 men. Absolute indifference on the part of a few men always works more harm than open opposition, as it affords no basis upon which work can be done.

The new system makes ample provision for every case that may arise. If a man does not feel that he can afford to meet this extra expense, he has only to notify the President of the Association and receive his ticket. No embarrassing questions are asked, and his word goes. If a man does not intend to have his tax remitted altogether, but if on the day the tax is due he does not happen to have the money, it would only be right for him to make a statement to that effect, receive his student ticket and arrange for a payment at a later date.

There should be no more embarrassment under this system than there was under the old one by which subscriptions for various activities were solicited many times a year. The greater share of the College has been quick to realize the advantages of the tax system and has supported it well. We hope that the few remaining men will get into line and help make the plan of financing our athletics an unqualified success.

To the Editor of LIFE:

May I have an inch or two of your valuable space for corrections of errata in the April number of Lit?

On page 375, in the Editorial section, appears the startling and iconoclastic reference: . . . "oratory, as a part of the curriculum under Faculty suppression." Before I am crushed beneath an avalanche of protest for having thus fleered wantonly at one of the greatest merits of our College, let me explain that the sentence went to press reading thus: . . . "oratory as a part of the curriculum under Faculty supervision." That ingenious imp of perversity whose province is printers' errors bewrayed my innocuous sentence to the version which has appeared, and as I read the proof rapidly, in Textual rather than Higher Criticism, the word suppression being a dictionary word in good standing, escaped my unreflecting pencil. I will print this correction also in the May Lit, which, D. V., will appear shortly.

Farther down in the same paragraph will be found this gem of lucidity: . . . "a heritage of renown for brilliant anniversary." If I remember rightly, anniversary in the 'copy' was "amatory theatricals," which at least makes sense —if nonsense as well—a very ancient bit of persiflage.

H. E. DOUNCE, '10.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION

At eight o'clock Friday evening the Y. M. C. A. Reception to the College and its guests was held in Silliman Hall. Tho the system of name and team labels was omitted, self introduction was in order and the guests were heartily welcomed. Association greetings and the program of the week and Hamilton songs were distributed.

Colson, on behalf of the Association, extended its welcome to the Sub-Freshmen. He spoke of the all-around man whom the Y. M. C. A. and Hamilton develop. President Stryker spoke further of Hamilton men and ideals. He said that a man gets just as much out of college as he puts into it, and Hamilton wants men who work as whole-heartedly as they play.

Following Dr. Stryker, Sherwin, '10, spoke on Hamilton Athletics. He emphasized the cleanliness of athletics here, and the fact that as many men as possible take part in each sport, thus giving the greatest good to the greatest number.

Professor Ward with a characteristic speech, distributed the medals to the Interclass winners.

With the assistance of the D. T. neophytes, refreshments were served, and after the singing of "Carissima," the reception ended.

Saturday morning was occupied with sight-seeing for the visitors, and recitations for the college. At 11:15 the Chapel was crowded for the Prize Speaking Contest.

FELTER OF BINGHAMTON PRIZE SPEAKER

Nine speakers appeared: Lovenguth, of Camden; Tumposky, of Utica Free Academy; Doyle, of Ilion; Goodsell, of Oneonta; Moe, of Groton; Felton, of Binghamton; Appleton, of Albany; Green, of Moravia, and Carmer, of Albion. Every man made a most creditable appearance, and none was in the least ludicrous as high school orators often are. Dr. Stryker declared the contest as good as any of the eleven Hamilton has held. The Judges, Prof. Babcock, Dounce, '10, and Sherwin, '10, finally gave the award to L. Stanley Felter, of Binghamton, who spoke "The Southern Negro." Felter's manner was both natural and forceful and he presented an interesting selection most convincingly. Justin Doyle, of Ilion, who spoke "Lincoln, A Leader Chosen of God," was given second prize.

GOUVERNEUR WINS MEET

The afternoon saw the big contest of the week, the Interscholastic Meet.

In spite of the cold, raw wind, that swept across the field, the events were closely contested and run in good time. As last year, the contest lay between Gouverneur, Batavia and Albany, but altho the Gouverneur men were few, they were good enough to win the Meet by a substantial lead, owing largely to the good work of Webb and Livingston.

Appleton, of Albany, won the quarter mile in good shape and in better time than last year, breaking the record of 56 1-5 seconds held by Taylor, of Utica. Appleton's time was 55 4-5. About twenty men started in the mile, but, being unable to hold the stiff pace set by Livingston, they soon strung out, leaving the fight for first place between Livingston and Smith, of Batavia. Livingston led for three and a half laps and seemed to have the race well in hand, but Smith, by a cleverly-timed sprint, passed him on the upper turn and won by ten yards. The time of this race was 4 min. 49 sec., which is better by four seconds than the record made by Smith last year.

The two mile was a pretty race. Livingston again led the field for seven and a half laps but was closely followed by Allen of Canton and Hilts of Batavia. At the beginning of the seventh lap Hilts fell back, leaving Allen and Livingston to fight it out. Allen, like Smith in the mile, passed Livingston on the upper turn and, finishing with a strong sprint, broke the record of 11 min. 7 sec. Allen's time for the two mile was 11 min. 3 1-5 sec.

Unsworth of Binghamton won the half mile by beating out Herkimer of Watertown after a well-judged sprint.

Webb of Gouverneur easily won both hurdles. The championship relay race closed the program of the afternoon and was the prettiest race of the Meet.

Four teams entered: Gouverneur, Albany, U. F. A., and Clinton. At the outset it was seen that U. F. A. and Clinton had little chance. Gouverneur led for three laps but the lead was constantly cut down until Appleton, Albany's last man, was given an even start. The result was very close, as Gouverneur's final runner, tho tired, was game to the end, and put up a great fight. Appleton, however, managed to lengthen his stride enough to catch him, and won in 3 min. 57 sec.

1913 DEFEATS CAMDEN

Immediately after the Meet the Freshman Baseball team met Camden High School in a seven-inning game. Fear pitched well for the Freshmen and the whole team fielded and batted strongly:

SMOKER ENDS THE WEEK.

No more fitting conclusion to Hamilton's greatest Interscholastic Week could have been arranged than the Smoker held in Commons Hall Saturday night. Commons was filled to overflowing, seats were at a premium, class distinctions were forgotten, and the democratic, glad-hand spirit of Hamilton pervaded the whole assembly.

At eight o'clock the various crowds came piling into Commons and it was not long before every available seat had been taken. The cheer leaders of the High Schools were soon at work and a prolonged exchange of yells was the result. The D. T. neophytes, under the direction of Engs, '10, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, served the guests with ice-cream, cake and lemonade, with cigars and peanuts on the side. The Sub-Freshmen and undergraduates were seated mainly by cities, this arrangement resulting in the renewal of many old acquaintances. The selections by the Glee Club rendered in the middle of the evening, were greeted by storms of applause, and once more attested the excellence of Hamilton singing. Equally excellent was the work of the Quartette, and it was only after their entire repertoire had been exhausted that they were allowed to stop.

The medals awarded for places in the Meet were presented by Dr. Stryker, who prefaced his remarks by a few words in regard to the value of college friendships. Here there were more yells for the successful men and a long cheer for Gouverneur High School, the winner of the Meet.

With the singing of "Carissima," Hamilton's biggest Interscholastic was over.

—The following men were on the Hill last week: Sherman, '78; Sherman, '04; Clark, ex-'07; Cody, '08.

Martin, '11, in company with Manager Dockstader, of the Colgate Track Team were in Rome last week and made the final arrangements for the annual N. Y. S. I. A. U. Track Meet to be held there on May 30th. Manager Martin is trying to secure a relay race between four prep. school teams as an added feature to the Meet and expects that this event can be secured. The Romohawks, a business men's organization of the city have the local arrangements in charge and will establish an Information Bureau at Stanwix Hall for the evening preceding and during the day of the Meet.

The entries for this Meet are now very nearly complete, Colgate, Rochester, Union, Hobart and Hamilton all having teams entered. Hamilton will be represented by a team of nine men, and the following have been selected: Capt. Knox, Abbott, Baldwin, and Sherwin, '10; Colson, '11; Wheeler, Eggleston, and Wenigmann, '13.

THE ST. LAWRENCE MEET

The 'Varsity Track Team, sixteen strong, will leave Friday noon for Canton, where on the following day they will participate in a Dual Meet with the St. Lawrence Track Team. Judging by the result of the Colgate-St. Lawrence Meet of last year, this Meet should result favorably for Hamilton. Manager Backus of the St. Lawrence team offers a shield as a trophy for the winning team.

The following is the order of events, thirteen in number, together with the Hamilton entries:

100-Yd. Dash—Colson, Wenigmann.

Shot-Put—Baldwin, Sherwin, Wenigmann, Trout.

High Jump—Sherwin, Wheeler, Colson, Bagg, '12.

Pole Vault—Day, Donaldson, Peters, '12.

440-Yd. Dash—Getman, '10, Shaul.

Broad Jump—Colson, Wenigmann.

220-Yd. Hurdles—Colson, Wenigmann.

Two Mile Run—Abbott, Eggleston.

220-Yd. Dash—Colson, Wenigmann.

Hammer Throw—Sherwin, Baldwin.

Half Mile Run. Knox, Gaige.

120-Yd. Hurdles—Colson, Bagg, '12.

ENTRIES FOR TENNIS TOURNAMENT CLOSE TO-DAY

The Tennis Committee of the Department of Intramural Sports has called for entries to an open tournament in Doubles. Entries will not be received after noon today (Tuesday). Names should be handed to Hemenway, '10, or Dounce, '10. The nature of the prizes to be offered is not yet announced. Several strong pairs have already announced their intention to enter; among them are Getman, '10, and Getman, '11; Hemenway, '10, and Woods, '13; and Dounce, '10, and Day, '11, the College Champion in Singles. There are other combinations in the College which could give any of the pairs named a hard battle for first honors, and a very interesting tournament may be expected. Matches will be decided by the best two sets in three, with the exception of the finals, which require three sets in five. It is requested that the matches be played as early as convenience and the weather will permit, and that the contestants use balls of their own providing, to be agreed upon beforehand by all four players. Matches in the first round not played off by Wednesday, May 25th, will be defaulted by the pair responsible for the delay.

The Committee is considering the advisability of an Invitation Tournament in Singles, to be participated in by the sixteen ranking players in College.

MEETING OF THE PRESS CLUB

At a meeting of the Press Club held Sunday afternoon, E. H. Jones, '11, was elected President of the Club for the ensuing year. Bates, '12; DuBourdieu, '12, and Lyon, '13, were added to the 1911 Board.
